Dear Authors,

We would like to ask for your response for the revised version of the paper that has presented at SCIEMATHIC 2019 to be submitted to the Scopus Journal. For your information, the due date has long passed (which was in 2nd September) based on our previous email. However, we are still accepting the revised version before 9th October 2019.

In order to proceed for publication, we require the latest revised version with the corrected format specifically for the Journal to be submitted together with Copyright form and Turnitin report. Please refer to the previous email for the Journal Template and Copyright Form.

Please note that, late submission will result in the failure of publication. Your cooperation is highly appreciated.
