Dear Suci Musvita Ayu,

This is regarding your submission to International Journal Of Community Medicine And Public Health, "The relationship between anxiety and sexual activity in climacteric women in facing menopause in Soropadan Posyandu and Sleman District".

Our decision is: Revisions Required

Comments:

1. Objective of the study should be given in Introduction section before methods.
2. Reference numbers should be appeared after the punctuation marks.
3. Selection criteria/inclusion and exclusion criteria of samples should be given in methods.
4. Exact study period (from month, year of study to month, year) should be given in methods section.
5. Exact place of study (hospital name) should be given in methods.
6. The methods must be described in sufficient detail to allow the experiments to be interpreted and repeated by an experienced investigator. Where published methods are used, references should be given, together with a brief outline.

7. The conclusions should be conveyed in a final paragraph with a clear statement of how the study advances knowledge and understanding in the field.

8. References are not formatted according to journal's format. Please see Section 9 of authors guidelines to format references.
