Additional Comments for the Author:

This is an interesting paper with its topic is relevant to the current issue. However, there are several corrections that should be addressed as follows:
1. In general, the language needs a professional editing and proofread for correcting the grammatical and expression errors.
2. Introduction: It does not clear why this study was conducted? Any empirical reasons for fulfilling evidence gap?
3. Methods: Clear enough
4. Results: the descriptive results should be re-write concisely.
5. Discussion: It needs to be restructure and focusing in three main issue of the study objective
6. Conclusion: No need to rewrite the results, please focusing on the main findings of this study and its implication for recommendations.
