Dear Editors,

Thank you for the information on the results of the review that was sent to me.
I sent an article that I have improved according to the review. This relates to:

1. Relevance of the problem, especially in the literature review to focus on aspects of the problem that have not been developed previously. I have developed with various empirical studies on the background of the problem.
2. Regarding point 1, I have improved the Background of the Problem regarding justification for the need for research
3. There are 2 research questions, the questions and answers have been written (discussion)
4. More special novelty has been added to RQ1, RQ2, and overall research
5. Research contributions for topic development have been added
6. Research recommendations have been added
7. Limitations have been added
8. All references have been written using numbering style (Vancouver Style)
9. Page 14 has been translated into English
10. I added there is no conflict of interest
11. I added more references relevant to the article
12. References in Indonesian have been translated into English (according to the reference writing guidelines)

Overall the improvement in the quality of the article writing is in accordance with the directions on the review form that was sent to me, I marked it with green color highlight

I really hope this article can be published in your Journal

Thank You

Regards,
Fitri Nur Mahmudah

Dear authors,

I'm the translator of the Education and Science Journal.

Please, modify the paper (Abstract, Information about the authors, References, etc) according to the requirements of our Journal (<http://www.edscience.ru/our/about/submissions>)

References should be formatted according to the Vancouver bibliographic style (refer to <http://guides.lib.monash.edu/citing-referencing/vancouver>). Also, you can find the examples in the articles attached.

The examples of articles in English are attached. Please, follow the examples.

Russian parts (Abstract, information about the authors, etc) should be included too and translated into Russian.

Best wishes,

Anna
