

Language Expressions in News Anchoring
Patria Handung Jaya, S.Pd., M.A.

Opening

- 1. Hello and welcome to BCC news. I am Mathew with the latest headlines.
- 2. Hello, I am Michelle and here is the top story about the ongoing election campaign in France.

Having the reporter live from the scene

- 1. Our sources tell us that Ebola was first identified in Africa.
- 2. Here is an exclusive interview with Secretary of State, John Kerry.
- 3. Let's hear from Nick, who is reporting live at the scene.
- 4. This is Nick, reporting live at the UN.
- 5. Thank you so much, Nick Jonas reporting live from Sydney, Australia

Before and After Commercial Breaks

1. Stay with us, we'll be right back after this short break.
2. After the break (read the news)
3. Coming up after the break (read the news)
4. welcome back on BBC News (read the news)
5. We've got some important breaking news for you tonight.

Closing

- 1. And that's all from us for now. Thanks for staying with us. Have a great day/Have a wonderful day/Good bye!

- 2. We will be back with the latest news at 10 p.m. Thanks for watching BCC news.

THANK YOU...

Ask me questions,
please 😊

Do it on FLIPDGRID

1. A 3-minute-video
2. Opening
3. One News Headline
4. Break
5. Welcoming back + One News Headline
6. Closing
7. Wear APPROPRIATE Attire