BACKGROUND OF ENGLISH

STATUS AND FUNCTION

English was chosen over Dutch despite Dutch colonization for over 3,5 centuries

- English was one of the language subjects offered at Dutch-speaking schools besides French (Smith, 1991, as cited in Dewi, 2011).
- After Indonesian independence in 1945, the government removed Dutch as it is associated with the language of colonials (Dardjowidjoyo, 2000).
- English is included in the national education curriculum English as 'the first foreign language' (Nababan, 1991, p.120).
- English became L2 for people who spoke Indonesian and L3 for Indonesian majority who spoke Indonesian and indigenous language.

BACKGROUND OF ENGLISH

ROLE OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE IN INDONESIAN EDUCATION

Started from New Order Regime (1967-1998), English was made compulsory in secondary schools under the Indonesian Ministry of Education and Culture.

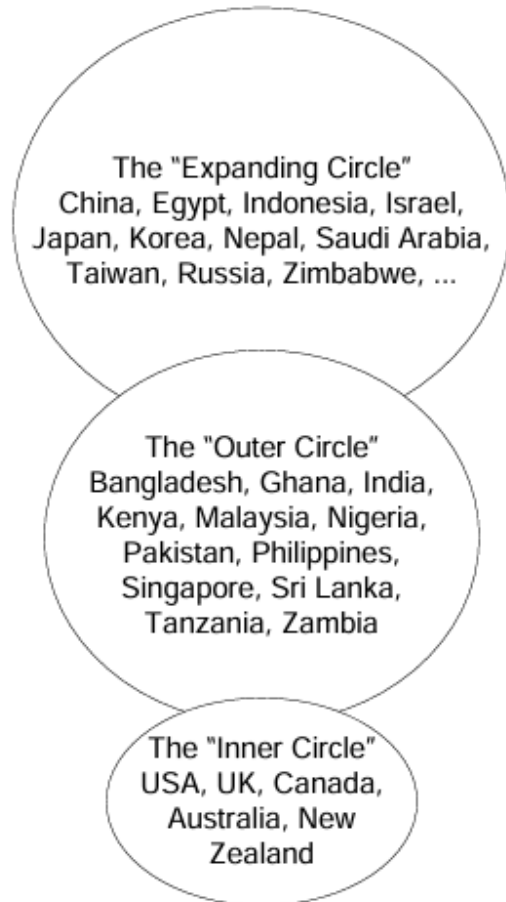

- Compulsory in Junior (SMP), High (SMA), and Vocational (SMK) schools
- English teaching and learning has experienced complicated curricular development (GTM, Oral Approach, Structural Approach, Communicative Approach, KBK, KTSP, 2013 Curriculum, up to Revised 2013 Curriculum).
- Current curriculum emphasizes on character building among students as learners.
- Foreign institutions have played significant role (AusAID, NZAID, British Council, AMINEF) to facilitate the development of Indonesian teachers (Zein, et al, 2020).

CHALLENGES IN SPEAKING ENGLISH LANGUAGE IN INDONESIA

CHALLENGES IN SPEAKING ENGLISH IN INDONESIA

LANGUAGE ATTITUDE TOWARDS ENGLISH

1. Limited possibilities of Indonesian people contact with English language in daily practice.
2. Indonesian language is seen to be the 'social solidarity' both in ideological and political aspect (minimum in English mastery).
3. Indonesians are still rooted in vernacular/local languages.
