Please write down your suggestion to improve this manuscript:

The author of this manuscript has chosen interesting topics on assessing the antibacterial effect associated with DFU of ointment formulation however the following points need to be revised before it is published:

1. the manuscript needs a thorough read to check for grammatical and typing errors.
2. The authors should specify why they chose ointment for the extract formulation and its benefits in DFU treatments.
3. some excipients and instrument info are missing from the manuscript
4. the author should remove the methods of ointment characterization from the result and discussion section to the method section
5. more references need to be added to support the claim that the extract has antibacterial activity and that flavonoid is its main biomarker in the introduction.
6. the author can see my other comments attached to the manuscript in the file
