ABSTRACT

This research entitled A Morphological Analysis of Short Stories The Red-headed League and the Adventures of the Three Garridebs aims to find out the process and pattern of affixation in the short stories “The Red-Headed League” and “The Adventure of the Three Garridebs.” The researcher studied morphology because it is crucial and it teaches us about words, because words are the foundation of language.

The method used in this research is a qualitative method. This research data contains affixes in the short stories “The Red-Headed League” and “The Adventure of the Three Garridebs”. The research used the record review as a method of collecting data because the data taken comes from published work. In analyzing data, the researcher used an ordering system of categories because her research takes specific data, which aims to find affixes in the short stories “The Red-Headed League” and “The Adventure of the Three Garridebs”. The theoretical approach used by the researcher is morphological analysis.

In the research, there are 2 (two) affix processes found in the two short stories, namely the affix added at the beginning of the word called prefix and the affix added at the end of the word called suffix. Then, in the short stories, there are four patterns in common. The first pattern is a prefix with the base word, the second pattern is a base word with a suffix, the third pattern is a word that has a prefix and a suffix, and the last pattern is a word that has two suffixes.

Keywords : Derivational, Inflectional, Morpheme

INTISARI

Penelitian yang berjudul A Morphological Analysis of Short Stories *the Red-headed League and the Adventures of the Three Garridebs ini bertujuan untuk mengetahui proses dan pola afiksasi dalam cerita pendek "The Red-Headed League" dan "The Adventure of the Three Garridebs". Peneliti mempelajari morfologi karena morfologi sangat penting dan morfologi mengajarkan kita mengenai kata, karena kata-kata merupakan dasar dari bahasa.

Metode yang digunakan dalam penelitian ini adalah metode kualitatif. Data penelitian ini mengandung imbuhan dalam cerita pendek "The Red-Headed League" dan "The Adventure of the Three Garridebs". Penelitian ini menggunakan record review sebagai metode pengumpulan data karena data yang diambil berasal dari karya yang dipublikasikan. Dalam menganalisis data, peneliti menggunakan sistem pengurutan kategori karena penelitian mengambil data yang spesifik, yang bertujuan untuk menemukan imbuhan dalam cerita pendek "The Red-Headed League" dan "The Adventure of the Three Garridebs". Pendekatan teoritis yang digunakan oleh peneliti adalah analisis morfologis.

Dalam penelitian terdapat 2 (dua) proses imbuhan yang terdapat pada dua cerpen tersebut, yaitu imbuhan yang ditambahkan pada awal kata disebut awalan dan imbuhan yang ditambahkan pada akhir kata disebut akhiran. Kemudian, dalam kedua cerita pendek, ada empat pola kata yang sama. Pola pertama adalah awalan dengan kata dasar, pola kedua adalah kata dasar dengan akhiran, pola ketiga adalah kata yang memiliki awalan dan akhiran, dan pola terakhir adalah kata yang memiliki dua akhiran.
