Dear Dr Dani Fadilah:

Recently, you received a decision on Manuscript ID CMR-2022-4165, entitled "Strengthening Spiritual and Cultural Approaches in Managing Mental Health During the COVID-19 Pandemic."

This e-mail is simply a reminder that your resubmission is due in two weeks. If it is not possible for you to submit your resubmission within two weeks, we will consider your paper as a new submission.

Please see a copy of the decision letter below which contains details of how to submit your revision and any comments from the editor/reviewers.

31-Oct-2022

Dear Dr Dani Fadilah:

Your manuscript entitled "Strengthening Spiritual and Cultural Approaches in Managing Mental Health During the COVID-19 Pandemic" which you submitted to Mental Health, Religion & Culture, has been reviewed. The reviewer comments are included at the bottom of this letter.

I regret to inform you that the reviewers have raised serious concerns, and therefore your paper cannot be accepted for publication in Mental Health, Religion & Culture. However, since the reviewers do find some merit in the paper, I would be willing to reconsider if you wish to undertake major revisions and re-submit, addressing the referees' concerns.

Please note that resubmitting your manuscript does not guarantee eventual acceptance, and that your resubmission will be subject to re-review before a decision is rendered.

Please resubmit your revised manuscript via the Taylor & Francis Submission Portal, at the following URL: <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/journal/cmrc>

If your manuscript is written in English as a foreign language, please ensure it is checked over by a native English speaker prior to its resubmission. You may either ask a colleague to help, consult a support agency, or alternatively use of T&F's professional editing services, information on which can be found via the following link: <https://www.tandfonline.com/author-services>

Ensuring your manuscript is checked for the quality of its English language at this point will ensure a quicker peer review process, and - in the event of its acceptance - a seamless production process.

Please note that using an editing service such as Taylor & Francis Editing Services does not mean that your article will be accepted for publication. It will be peer reviewed as normal and must meet the standard criteria for publication in the journal. For more information, see the journal's Aims and Scope and Instructions for Authors pages.

Because we are trying to facilitate timely publication of manuscripts submitted to Mental Health, Religion & Culture, your revised manuscript should be uploaded as soon as possible. If it is not possible for you to submit your revision on or before 09-Apr-2023, we will consider your paper as a new submission.

I look forward to resubmission.

Sincerely,

Professor Christopher Lewis

This is a short opinion piece and not an empirical paper.

It adds nothing new to the literature and I feel it is unsuitable for publication.

Comments to the Author

This is a very kind letter with a positive response to a previously published article in the journal. And apparently it is a plea for online spirituality services during pandemics, including for young people, that seems to be a critical first against locking such facilities (by whom?) But that is about all it says. I would say it could be more challenging, more critical and more factual.

If you have any questions or experience any difficulties submitting your revised manuscript, please contact the journal's editorial office at cmrc@tandfonline.com

Sincerely,

Professor Christopher Lewis

Dear Dr Dani Fadilah:

Your above referenced manuscript, entitled "Strengthening Spiritual and Cultural Approaches in Managing Mental Health During the COVID-19 Pandemic" has been unsubmitted to Mental Health, Religion & Culture. It may either have been unsubmitted at your request or because you did not complete all necessary parts of the submission.

During my administrative checks for your submission, I have noticed that the list of authors has been updated.

To change the author list for your revision, please fill out the attached form. This form is to verify that all authors being added or removed agree to the changes, and that all authors' contributions meet the definition of authorship. This definition is given at <https://author-services.tandfonline.com/define-authorship/>

All authors will need to sign the attached form before it can be submitted. They can either print and sign or sign digitally. Any author who digitally signs will need to also attach an email confirming their agreement, sent from the same email assigned to them on the form. Once all signatures are collected, the corresponding author will then upload the form as a Supplementary File Not For Review, and resubmit the paper. Ideally, all signatures will be gathered on the same form, but you can upload multiple if need be.

Please visit the instructions to authors to complete your submission and re-submit the manuscript for consideration of publication.

To re-submit your manuscript, please go to your author dashboard at <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cmrc>, locate the manuscript and click 'Resubmit'.

Sincerely,

Dear Dr Dani Fadillah,

Your manuscript entitled "Strengthening Spiritual and Cultural Approaches in Managing Mental Health During the COVID-19 Pandemic" which you submitted to Mental Health, Religion & Culture, has been reviewed. The reviewer comments are included at the bottom of this letter.

The reviews are in general favourable and suggest that, subject to minor revisions, your paper could be suitable for publication. Please consider these suggestions, and I look forward to receiving your revision.

When you revise your manuscript please highlight the changes you make in the manuscript by using the track changes made in MS Word or by using bold or coloured text.

In accordance with our format-free submission policy, an editable version of the article must be supplied at the revision stage. Please submit your revised manuscript files in an editable file format.

To submit a revision, go to <https://journals.tandf.co.uk/submit/revision/229695963.R1>. If you decide to revise the work, please submit a list of changes or a rebuttal against each point which is being raised when you submit the revised manuscript.

If you have any questions or technical issues, please contact the journal's editorial office at cmhr-peerreview@journals.tandf.co.uk

If your manuscript is written in English as a foreign language, please ensure it is checked over by a native English speaker prior to its resubmission. You may either ask a colleague to help, consult a support agency, or else make use of T&F's professional editing services, information on which can be found via the following link: <https://royal.sagepub.com/proof>

Ensuring your manuscript is checked for the quality of its English language at this point will ensure a quicker peer review process, and - in the event of its acceptance - a seamless production process.

Please note that using an editing service such as Taylor & Francis Editing Services does not mean that your article will be accepted for publication; it will be peer reviewed as normal and must meet the standard criteria for publication in the journal. For more information, see the journal's Aims and Scope and Instructions for Authors pages.

Because we are trying to facilitate timely publication of manuscripts submitted to Mental Health, Religion & Culture, your revised manuscript should be uploaded as soon as possible. If it is not possible for you to submit your revision on or before 05-Oct-2023, we may have to consider your paper as a new submission.

Once again, thank you for submitting your manuscript to Mental Health, Religion & Culture and I look forward to receiving your revision.

Dear Dani Fadilah,

Your article, Strengthening spiritual and cultural approaches in managing mental health during the COVID-19 pandemic, published in Mental Health, Religion & Culture, Volume 26 Issue 2, is now available for you to access via tandfonline.com.

You will have permanent, free access to the final published version of your article via your Authorized Works, our dedicated center for all Routledge authors. This is where you can view all articles published in our journals, check how many people have viewed them, see their citations, and check your Altmetric data. Haven't registered for your Authorized Works yet? Find out how.

Have you used your free eprints yet?

Now you're published, you'll hopefully want to share your article with friends or colleagues. Every author at Routledge (including all co-authors) gets 50 free online copies of their article to share with their networks. Your eprint link is now ready to use and is:

<https://www.tandfonline.com/eprint/5BRKXYSJ2S3PKG7UXAFT/nil?target=10.1080/13674676.2023.2252348>

You can share this any way you want, and author feedback tells us this is a highly effective way of highlighting your research. Using this link also means we can track your article's downloads and citations, so you can measure its impact. Find out more about sharing your work, and how you can work with us to highlight your article.

If you have any problems accessing your Taylor & Francis Online account, or using your eprints, please contact us.
