Dear Nurul Kodriati

Abstract No.296 - Strengthening Tobacco Control in Disaster Prone Region: A Scoping Review for the Indonesian Context

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, it is our great pleasure to invite you as an Oral Presentation for the 56th Asia Pacific Academic Consortium for Public Health (APACPH 2025), which will be held from November 4 to 7, 2025, at Mae Fah Laung University in Chiang Rai, Thailand.

APACPH 2025 is an international conference that is hosted by Schools of Health Science (SHS), Mae Fah Laung University. The 56th APACPH Conference in 2025 will serve as a forum for knowledge sharing and dissemination among academicians, public health practitioners, and organizations with common interests in the field of public health; assistance in developing policies and strategies to improve the quality and relevance of educational, research, and training programs in the field of public health; and demonstration of effective interventions.

We are confident that your talk, fully equipped with your knowledge and insight, will add a new dimension to APACPH 2025 and provide an excellent opportunity to share your expertise with the participants of the conference. We hope that you will be able to accept this invitation and contribute to APACPH, whose presence will surely and greatly enrich the depth of the discussion in the conference.

If you would like to request further information, please feel free to contact the APACPH 2025 Secretariat (apacph2025@mfu.ac.th).

We sincerely look forward to your positive response. Sincerely yours,

Sincerely yours,

Wipob Suttana.
